

Add a touch of the Bohemian to your holidays

A unique concept

Roulottes de Campagne gypsy caravans are a genuine invitation to travel - and also embody a new lifestyle. They are an original, authentic way of finding the quality and change of scenery you're looking for when planning your holidays in the country.

These Bohemian-style caravans are warm and cosy, inviting you to all sorts of adventures: romantic, cultural, historical or just plain fun ! They are located* all over France in places of outstanding natural beauty, far away from the usual tourist rush - places where there are still remote little villages to be explored, traditional markets to wander through and unexpected encounters to enjoy.

*Static accommodation which cannot be moved during the stay
